The 2026 Synod

The 2026 Synod of the Moravian Church in America, Northern Province was held June 24-26 in Minneapolis, Minnesota. With the theme, "God's Vision, Our Mission, Your Decision," two hundred voting delegates were divided into nine committees and were presented with fifty-eight memorials and reports. Highlights included:

- The Rev. Brian Dixon and The Rev. Nasel Ephraim were elected as bishops of the Moravian Unity. Rev. Dixon currently serves as pastor of Emmaus Moravian Church in Emmaus, PA. He was ordained a deacon in the Moravian Church in 2005 and consecrated a presbyter of the church in 2009. Prior to serving at Emmaus, Brian served in North Dakota and Minnesota. Rev. Ephraim currently serves as pastor of Redeemer Moravian Church in Philadelphia, PA and as Chair of the Northern Province Provincial Women's Board. She was ordained in 2002, consecrated a presbyter in 2009 and has served in Barbados and St. Kitts.

The Moravian Church in America (Northern Province) is planning to hold a special Joint District and Provincial Synod in 2028. This gathering will unify the Canadian, Western, and Eastern districts alongside the provincial synod into a single event, with plans to rotate the location among the districts every four years.

- The Rev. David Bennett was re-elected as president of the Provincial Elders' Conference. Dave has served as PEC president since 2023 and will continue this role through 2028. Because of the Northern Province's plan to hold a special joint district and provincial synod in 2028, the term for this PEC will be for two years. Following the 2028 Synod, PEC terms will return to four-year terms. (The PEC is the Province's highest governing board, providing administrative leadership to congregations and program agencies. It is made up of four lay members, plus the presidents of each of the province's three districts (Eastern, Western and Canadian) and the president of the PEC.)
- Blondel Jones-Grant (United Moravian Church, NYC), Ralph Wanamaker, Jr. (West Side Moravian Church, Bethlehem, PA), Keith Gohdes (Canaan Moravian Church, Davenport, ND), and Tammy Lavoy (Newfoundland Moravian Church, Newfoundland, PA) are the newly elected PECNP lay members.
- The Rev. Dr. Melissa Johnson, Eastern District president; The Rev. Jason Andersen, Western District president; and David Jones, president of the Board of Elders of the Canadian District who will continue to serve on the PEC.

This synod was the first paperless Synod of the Moravian Church Northern Province! Synod utilized a Dropbox-based online document management system for all documents for committee work, memorials presented to the committees, and for legislation that came before the synod during plenary sessions.

Central Moravian Church's delegates included the Rev. Janel Rice, Jennifer Ceneviva, Brenda Hoelman, Mike Kane, and Katie Owens. Dr. Christian Rice, Rev. Grace Hochella, and Rev. Becky Lepore attended as did Hank Naisby as a part of the District Board, and Rev. Dr. Betsy Miller, Jeff Long and Paul Peucker in leadership positions. Special thanks to alternates Martha and Mark Jones, JoEllen LaPrade, and Bob Wascura who were willing to be on standby!

Additional information on some of the committees and resolutions will be presented in each Belfry newsletter over the next few months.

Cybersecurity Workshop - August 16

Cybersecurity is how to protect computer networks and systems from service disruption and information theft. The goal is to defend and protect servers, personal and private data, computers, and mobile devices (smartphones, laptops and tablets) from attack resulting in damage or theft. Cyber threats are evolving at a very rapid rate.

In 2024, there were 3,205 data breaches reported, effecting 353 million victims. Major companies lost billions of customer records. Because cybersecurity is essential and cannot be ignored, the Digital Ministry Committee is dedicated to keeping our congregation safe by providing information regarding the ever-changing world of technology. Paul de Vries and Will Schwab will conduct a 60-minute Cybersecurity workshop on Sunday, August 16th in the Christian Education building, lower level, (40 W. Church Street) after the 10 a.m. worship service. All are welcome.

Join Us for Candle-Making in September

It is time to prepare for the 2026 Christmas Holiday Season with the making of Beeswax Candles. Production starts on Tuesday, September 8 and repeats on Tuesday the 15th and the 22nd. A 9 a.m. start with a break for coffee and donuts around 10:30 a.m. has been the norm. We are usually cleaned up and ready to go home around noon.

For those that may be interested in helping, two stations are traditionally established. There is wick preparation in one room and mold stringing (12 candles to a mold) in the "hot shop" where wax is also poured. The molds cool rather quickly, allowing the candles to be removed, hung to dry, and the molds reused several times throughout the morning. We will produce between 8 and 10 thousand candles that will be used for our Christmas Eve Service and seasonal activities of other churches, universities and civic groups.

The rooms used for candle making are in the basement of the Central Moravian Church main office at 73 W. Church Street. Parking is available in the parking lot at the rear of the building.

Please email harry.tachovsky@gmail.com or text to 484-547-1596 noting the Tuesdays you would like to participate and also whether you'd like to work in the hot shop (wax pouring area) or the wick preparation room. If you intend to work in the hot shop, long pants, a long-sleeved shirt and closed shoes are required. Please also provide your phone number and email address in case changes to our schedule need to be made.

Consider being a part of this annual event and experience the beeswax smells, renew friendships, and enjoy the coffee, doughnuts and conversation that have all become part of our preparation for the Moravian Christmas season.

Spiritual Direction/Companioning a Personal Experience by Diane Kessler

Have you ever wondered about Spiritual Direction/ Companioning? Do you know what it is?

Almost three years ago, I joined a Spiritual Companioning Group with three other ladies, Moravian pastors Rev. Desna Henry Goulbourne, Rev. Jamie Almquist, and Judy Williams. We met with Marcella Kraybill-Greggo, a professor at Moravian University's School of Theology, Spiritual Director, and dynamic participant in the Wisdom School Community. Marcella taught us that together we listen for the direction the Spirit may be inviting. We engage our whole selves in this embodied listening to, for, and with the Divine, engaging our minds, hearts/emotions, and body/movement center. After several months of spiritual direction, Marcella released our group to be on our own. The rest is history. The four of us have been together since, meeting virtually once a month, following the format Marcella taught us. We have become very close as we walk through life together. It has been such a special gift and cherished by us all. And, this is available to everyone.

Rev. Desna and Rev. Jamie have recently earned their Certificate in Spiritual Direction from the School of Theology. They join many others who offer Spiritual Direction for groups and/or individuals. Please consider giving yourself this precious gift. To learn more, go to https://www.moravian.edu/school-theology/alumni/spiritual-direction-directory.

For Trex plastic, please do not include plastic bottles or other rigid plastic containers, pre-washed salad mix bag, frozen food bag, candy bar wrappers, chip bags, dried fruit and nut bags, six-pack plastic ring, pouch packaging. Plastic must be clean and dry, stretch easily and not be shiny or crinkly. Thank you for your continued support!

Vacation Bible School

During our morning worship on Sunday, June 28, our Director of Children's Ministries, Linda de Vries joyfully shared with the congregation the success of this year's Vacation Bible School. Central collaborated with East Hills Moravian Church and Advent Moravian Church to present a Snowball Mountain Challenge. Children in Pre-K through fifth grade memorized the challenge motto from Philippians 4:13, "I can do all things through him who strengthens me," while singing, moving, crafting, praying, and learning about Jesus. Fifty-three children attended and celebrated the end of VBS with worship and snow cones. Central is grateful that our Food Pantry will be a recipient of their Avalanche of Blessings where families donated personal care items and food.

We give thanks for the hospitality of East Hills Moravian Church for hosting this year's Vacation Bible School and to all the adult and youth volunteers who made the week so much fun! From Central, we are grateful for volunteers Alexandra and Elizabeth Goodman, science guy Bob Wascura, Bible story tellers Gayle Dimmick and Karen Brady, clever crafter Kelly Ahn, musical maestro Linda de Vries and her musical partner in crime, Kaylyn George. If you missed the fun this year, we hope you'll consider joining us next year either as a helper or participant. Invite friends and neighbors. All are welcome, not just Moravian church members. There is room for everyone to experience the love of Jesus.

Reflections on Coming to the End… Richard Miller's Final Year

In March of 1993, following a very heavy snowfall, Barry Pell and I walked down the middle of Main Street toward the Old Chapel (OC). It was Sunday morning and there was going to be one service only at Central Moravian Church and it would be held in the OC.

As we left the Meyers Building, I told Barry I was taking a book of organ chorale preludes, "just in case someone was needed." When we encountered Doug Caldwell and Peter Skelly, they were overjoyed at the prospect of having keyboard music, Doug declaring it was "serendipity." This service would be my debut at Central Moravian.

At that point I had nothing in mind but offering my meager skills for this one service. Thirty-three years of playing and twenty-one years of leading a choir were not at all in my thoughts.

There will be time for me to reminisce later. Right now, I must prepare for my final year. First of all, I want to invite those former members of the Chapel Choir, who are still living, back to sing with us. We have lost members over the years. Mary Lou Shade, Marge Rowland and Lousia Frey. We miss them greatly.

All former members are invited to rejoin the choir. Plus, the Chapel Choir will welcome new members. We offer a less intense schedule of practice and Sunday services. This is by design. We also offer a caring, Christian family environment. We hope those of you who like to sing will join us.

And finally, we have a sizeable youth population at this time. The Chapel Choir would love to have youth join them to sing.

Here are the rehearsal dates through the end of this year. I hope to hear from you.

- September 3, 10, 24
- October 1, 15, 22, 29

Bethlehem Area Moravian Trombone Choir's Change of Leadership

As of August 1st, there will be a change of leadership for the Bethlehem Area Moravian (BAM) Trombone Choir. Donald Kemmerer, who has led the group for over 40 years, has retired, and Caitlin Heckman has been named the new director.

Don Kemmerer was born and raised in Bethlehem. After graduating from Liberty High School, he completed his musical education at West Chester University, majoring in trumpet and French horn. After college, Don taught instrumental music in public schools, eventually becoming a fulltime professional musician. Don has performed with many of the bands in the Lehigh Valley Area and is often featured as a guest soloist. He has been a member of the Bethlehem Municipal Band for over 40 years and was its director from 1989 until 2025. Don has also been active in the Moravian Music Foundation, including serving as a clinician and Trombone Choir Director for multiple Moravian Music Festivals and Moravian Music Weekends.

Caitlin Heckman is a graduate of Moravian College (now University) and has been in the music education field for 15 years. She currently teaches elementary band and orchestra in the Easton Area School District while also playing principal trombone with The Allentown Band, America's oldest civilian band. A lifelong member of Central Moravian Church, Caitlin began playing with the BAM Trombone Choir in 2006. She is also the director of the Central Church brass ensemble, has sung in the Central Choir, participated in several Moravian Music Festivals, and previously served on the board of trustees for the Moravian Music Foundation.

The BAM Trombone Choir is the oldest continuously operating musical organization in the United States, tracing its origins back to 1754. The Trombone Choir began as a functional ensemble, announcing births, deaths, festivals, and worship services, and continues to play for church services, funerals, and community events. The group performs with a full consort of soprano, alto, tenor, bass, and contrabass trombones, preserving the unique history of the ensemble.

Central Moravian Church is blessed to have the BAM Trombone Choir play for our worship services at least ten times every year, including for some of our Holy Week services, the Easter Dawn service, the outdoor August 13th lovefeast, the Christmas Eve Children's Lovefeast, and our New Year's Eve Watchnight Service. Thank you, Don, for your many decades of musical leadership. Welcome, Caitlin, as you continue the legacy of the BAM Trombone Choir. We are blessed.

All inquiries and requests regarding the BAM Trombone Choir can be directed to Caitlin Heckman at caitlin.g.heckman@gmail.com or 610-393-9891.

Confirmation Class

Confirmation in the Moravian Church is an important time when young adults who were baptized as infants or children, can confirm their faith by publicly affirming that covenant that was previously made for them by their parents. Confirmation classes are a time to ask questions about God, to learn about the Bible and beliefs of the Moravian Church, and to build a foundation of faith.

A yearlong confirmation class taught by Pastor Becky will begin in August for any interested individuals ages 12–16. If you are interested in learning more about confirmation class, please email Becky at Becky@centralmoravianchurch.org.

Exhibition Honoring Jeanette Barres Zug

The Moravian Museum of Bethlehem is proud to present an exhibition honoring Jeanette Barres Zug, whose leadership, vision, and dedication were instrumental in the founding and early development of the museum. An active member of Central Moravian Church, Jeanette devoted decades of her life to preserving Moravian history and culture, helping to shape one of Bethlehem's most important cultural institutions. Before there were professional staff, formal docent programs, or a Moravian Museum housed in the Gemeinhaus, there was Jeanette Barres Zug. This exhibition traces the life of the volunteer whose work helped define how generations of visitors first encountered Moravian Bethlehem. Baptized in 1907 by her uncle, a Moravian pastor in Lancaster County, Jeanette grew up in Bethlehem and attended Moravian Seminary for Girls. Her fluency in German and French was so strong that teachers frequently called upon her to interpret for visiting dignitaries. She continued her education at Wellesley College, spent a formative summer studying in Munich, and later returned home to teach languages at Moravian Preparatory School. In 1929, she married Charles Zug Jr. at Central Moravian Church, deepening her lifelong connection to the Moravian community.

Jeanette's work with the museum began in the 1930s when fellow Central Moravian Church member Miriam Taylor asked her to organize tour guides for a Rotary Club convention. What was intended as a one-time favor became a lifelong vocation. Jeanette trained generations of guides, served twelve years as President of the Board, helped lead the museum's 1966 move from the Sisters' House to the Gemeinhaus, organized the 1752 Apothecary, and contributed chapters to Bethlehem, the First Hundred Years.

Through photographs, archival materials, family loans, and personal effects, the exhibition explores Jeanette Zug's remarkable life and lasting contributions to the museum and the broader Moravian community. It also reflects on the dedication of the volunteers whose efforts preserved Bethlehem's unique heritage and established a foundation for future generations. (Exhibition on view at the Moravian Museum from June 25, 2026, through January 31, 2027).

Stewardship One-Liner

We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith: ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.
Romans 12: 6-8

August Special Offering Envelope

International Student Care (August 2): The International Student Care Committee (ISCC) partners with Moravian University to provide undergraduate education to deserving students of Moravian faith from other parts of the world. While Moravian University provides tuition, room and board, and fees, the ISCC provides the other student needs: transportation to / from the home country, books, healthcare, dental care, spending money, a clothing budget, phone and phone plan, and many other miscellaneous expenses required in university life. Our students are fondly known as Barnette Scholars thanks to the generosity of Hank and Joanne Barnette, who endowed a fund in support of this ministry. Currently we have three students: Edina Mang'ombe, a senior from Tanzania, Shantey Hodgson Smith, a junior from Nicaragua, and we welcome Idara Marshall from Jamaica, who will be a freshman starting in August! Please consider a gift to this very special cause.

Reduce, Reuse, Recycle; Use Less Plastic

- Donate extra produce (fruit, vegetables, herbs) to Central's Food Pantry. Check Constant Contact, or call the Church Office to find out when food should be brought in.
- Planning a picnic? Instead of the usual plastic knives, spoons,and forks, check out World Centric's website: https://www.worldcentric.com. They offer lots of compostable choices.
- Do you have clothing items, still in wearable condition, that you haven't worn in the last year or two? You can declutter your closet, and repurpose these items at Central's Cynthia's Boutique Clothing Closet. Cynthia's is open Thursday mornings from 10 am - noon on the lower level of the Church Office Building. Cynthia's accepts clothing items for women, men and children. And please bring clothing that is 'in season' (e.g. (winter clothing in the fall/winter) since storage space is limited.
- Check out this website for lots of ideas on things you can do to save energy around the house: https://www.papowerswitch.com/understanding-energy/ways-to-save-energy/
- Having your tires at the proper pressure increases your car's gas mileage. It also increases the longevity of your tires, which reduces rubber waste. Most gas stations and service centers have pressure gauges and air dispensers available.
