From Pastor Janel

I recently showed a wedding couple the Old Chapel. They live in an 18th century house and were fascinated by the similarities and also the pristine appearance (thanks to our great custodian, Tammy and diligent Buildings and Grounds Committee, I said). But, they asked, was it always this way? Did it fall into disrepair after the Sanctuary was built, and did it need to be remodeled and cleaned up?

I think they seemed a bit disappointed when I said no, as far as I knew, the Moravian congregation always took care of this space even as the usage of the space changed. First it served as the 2nd place of worship for the congregation then it became the Moravian Academy's chapel and it was even used for awhile as a concert hall for the Bethlehem Philharmonic Society until worship services returned in 1856. The Moravians cared for it as the years went along and the needs changed.

October brings Stewardship Sunday and along with it a word that is rarely used outside of church settings. Yet as we explore the origins of the word "stewardship", I think we gain a glimpse into the importance of being care-takers of both spaces and gifts while also allowing the needs of our contemporary world to influence how we use those gifts. The word "steward" itself originates from the Old English "stig" (meaning hall or enclosure) and "weard" (meaning guard), originally describing a "hall-guard" or "house-keeper". The concept of stewardship, meaning managing something for another, is ancient, with roots in the Greek word oikonomia ("management of a house") and the New Testament's discussion of managing God's gifts.

We are essentially the managers of God's physical houses and also God's spiritual gifts, and each day, but especially on Stewardship Sunday, we are reminded of the unique privilege in the physical and spiritual gifts that Central Moravian Church is given.

I'm so excited to have Diane Shaw, chair of our History Committee serve as the Stewardship Sunday speaker because the History Committee and some of its recent collaborations with the Racial Justice Team demonstrate how we are both care-takers of our history while also exploring its relevance in a contemporary time. The History Committee has tried to find ways to explore some of the voices and people who have not been recognized in our past, with both the Enslaved and Free and now an Indigenous People's tour. Gaining a fuller understanding of the myriad of voices in 18th century Bethlehem gives a witness to these voices in our modern era as well. I am proud that our stewardship or "house management" of our historic buildings is done with an awareness of what is needed to bring God's love and light to our world today.

Guest Preacher, Very Rev. Tony Pompa

We are thrilled to welcome the Episcopal priest, the Very Rev. Tony Pompa to Central's pulpit on October 5th. Tony served as the dean of the Nativity Cathedral of Bethlehem for 14 years. As a community member and a friend of Central, we welcome Tony to our pulpit on a day that we celebrate our close connections with the worldwide Christian community, World Communion Sunday.

Join Us for Candle Trimming

It is time to start trimming candles for this year's Christmas Eve Services! We will be offering two ways to trim the candles: in your own home or join us on Monday nights at 7 p.m. in the Kleiner Saal and Sacristy of the Sanctuary.

We will be available Sunday, October 5 at noon at the Church for a curbside pickup, or to take home after the service. Contact us for other arrangements.

Intergenerational Sunday School: What is Essentials Café & the CROP Walk?

Our friends from Essentials Café will come to talk with our children (and adults of all ages) during a special Sunday School on October 5th to learn more about what they are doing with the pay-what-you can café. Part of our lessons for all ages will also involve an introduction to the CROP Walk and how we are raising money to fight local hunger including for Essentials. Join us in the Christian Education building, lower level (40 W. Church Street) at 10 a.m. – all are welcome!

Indigenous People and Early Bethlehem: A Walking Tour

Indigenous people—both visitors and residents—have been part of Bethlehem since its founding. On this walking tour you will learn about the deep, persistent, and complex relationships that Lenape, Mohicans, and Haudenosaunee people formed with the Moravians at Bethlehem. We will visit the last surviving home from Nain (a nearby Indigenous village), which was moved to Bethlehem in 1765. Please join us for a remarkable and enlightening story. This tour will be held on Saturday, October 11th at 1:30 p.m., starting in the Old Chapel and will last approximately 90 minutes. Participants should expect to walk some steps, up to God's Acre and around the historic campus. Please register by emailing the church office (office@centralmoravianchurch.org).

Blessing of the Animals

Did you know that the blessing of the animals is traditionally connected to the date of St. Francis' death in early October? St. Francis was renowned for remembering the sanctity and care for all life, animals and people.

On Sunday, October 5th, we invite you to bring your pets (or a photo if they don't travel well) to the lower church green at 2 p.m. (right outside the NE door), for our annual Blessing of the Animals. Children are welcome to bring a favorite stuffed animal for a blessing as well. If you have lost a pet, feel free to come as we also will have a time of silence and remembrance. This is a wonderful service to give thanks for all of life that God has created!

"Praised be you, my Lord, with all Your creatures, especially Sir Brother Sun, who is the day and through whom You give us light, and he is beautiful and radiant with great splendor; and bears a likeness of You, Most High One. Praised by You, my Lord, through our Sister Mother Earth, who sustains and governs us, and who produces various fruit with colored flowers and herbs." St Francis, 13th c.

Rooted Film – Free Screening

Central Moravian and the Bach Choir have been featured in the film "Rooted" recently produced and ready to be screened at a free showing at the ArtsQuest Banko Theatres (on the southside) on Monday, October 13 at 7 p.m. This film follows the stories of a handful of artists who spent their lives creating in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, beginning in the mid-1970s, and the legacy of art in a variety of ways for our city's present and future generations. Free tickets available at the following link:

Halloween Parade Luncheon

We're having our traditional Halloween Parade Luncheon in Nitschmann Hall on Sunday, October 26 after the 11 a.m. worship service. We'll supply pulled pork sandwiches and hot dogs. After church, enjoy a nice hot lunch with ice cream sundaes and stay to watch the Halloween Parade. ### Wishing Our Financial Secretary Kris Wruble All the Best!

It is with deep regret that we received notice from our financial secretary, Kris Wruble, about her desire to leave her employment with us at Central Moravian Church, effective September 18th with the generous offer to be available in the transition if needed. We certainly have appreciated her hard work and efficiency in the financial realm, and we wish her all the best in future endeavors. The Personnel Committee will be identifying an interim person for this position with the intent of search starting soon. If you or someone you know is interested in the job description (or could have experience in the interim), please reach out to Pastor Janel.

Note from Becky and Ralph

To the congregation members of Central Moravian Church, Thank you so much for the outpouring of love, prayers, and cards upon the passing of Ralph's mother on August 25th. We are so blessed to have such a beautiful community of faith with whom to share our joys and our sorrows.

With love,
Becky and Ralph Lepore

Community Celebration Welcomes Thousands to Central & Downtown Bethlehem

On Saturday, September 6th, we estimate that thousands of visitors joined to celebrate the UNESCO World Heritage designation – and almost in as many ways! There were tours of the historic buildings, brewery demonstrations, candle trimming and lots of other ways to explore our history and heritage. But there was also modern hospitality in the form of free cotton candy, hot dogs, and popcorn, a variety of music and children's programming and information from not only Moravian institutions but also from Bethlehem's Sister Cities, city partners like Touchstone Theatre and PA Youth Theatre and dozens more. In the middle of it all, visitors were welcomed into the Sanctuary at 3 p.m. to enjoy the free Johnston Festival Memorial Music Concert, featuring Mainstreet Brass, SATORI, and Elaine Hagenberg's Illuminare, performed by Central Moravian Church Festival Choir and string orchestra. It did not disappoint!

The ending Community Lovefeast led by the six Bethlehem Area Moravian pastors and a band organized by the Rt. Rev. Chris Giesler. What a wonderful testimony to our cooperation together with a treasured gift of the Lovefeast!

Perhaps it is in this closing Lovefeast that we were again reminded of why we were selected as a part of the transitional World Heritage site. We exhibit Outstanding Universal Values, like community, equality, and education, that are vital to preserve for all of humanity. These values must not be only recognized as historical, as the buildings, but also vital parts of our living practices and ministries today. Essentially, they are GOOD for us! Thanks to all who were a part of this special day of celebration!

Welcoming a New Bethlehem Moravian Church

After a year of prayer and conversations, the Provincial Elders’ Conference, in consultation with the Eastern District Executive Board, is thrilled to announce the approval and acceptance of The Gate – A Faith Community of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, as a new member congregation of the Moravian Church, Northern Province. These conversations began following an expressed interest by The Gate leadership to join the Moravian Church as a ministry partner and as a participating member of an inclusive and vibrant Moravian mission community.

The Gate will begin their ministry with us by worshipping in the former space for Esperanza on 4th Street in South Bethlehem. A special service of welcome and commemoration will be planned for the near future. Pastor Eric Schwartz of The Gate offers his heartfelt gratitude in being welcomed into our Moravian family.

Welcome Back Sunday School

Children and adults alike enjoyed an ice cream treat after worship on August 24 as we gave a special back to school blessing for all (and their backpacks too!).

Stewardship One-Liner

The God who made the world and everything in it, being Lord of heaven and earth...gives to all mankind life and breath and everything.

Acts 17:24-25

Celebrating at Central

When you’re in the sanctuary for worship or other activities, be sure to check out the exhibit of historical images in the west (rear) hallway sponsored by the History Committee. Central member Nancy Rutman, the exhibit’s designer, has chosen images from her personal collection and the collections of the Moravian Archives to illustrate how the sanctuary has been decorated for various holidays and celebrations. The east wall of the hallway features photos of Advent and Christmas, while the west now showcases Palm Sunday and Easter, patriotic holidays, and anniversaries (the last two sections having been completed in the past two weeks). The creativity and artistry of our congregation over the years is truly inspiring!

Besides dozens of American flags, decorations in Central for the nation’s centennial in July 1876 included a replica of the Liberty Bell, fashioned from rhododendron blossoms, arbor vitae, and red geraniums, suspended above the pulpit. From a stereoscopic photograph by Moulton A. Kleckner/Collection of Nancy Rutman

Palms, lilies, and ivy were frequently incorporated into Easter decorations in the 1890s. Probably photographed by E. A. Rau/Collection of Moravian Archives, Bethlehem

Reduce, Reuse, Recycle; Use Less Plastic

- Check out : <https://homegrownnationalpark.org> to learn what each of us can do to extend our national parks into our yards, communities and surrounding lands by planting native species and removing invasive species. If many people make small changes, we can restore healthy ecological networks. A good start would be to reduce the size of your lawn, save your leaves for mulch and plant pollinator plants to attract beneficial insects.
- Learn to love leftovers! It’s estimated that almost 40% of food in the US is wasted. According to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, in the U.S. food is the single largest category of material placed in municipal landfills, where it emits methane, a powerful greenhouse gas. Globally, food waste accounts for an estimated 8 – 10% of greenhouse gas emissions. According to the USDA, the average family of four in the US will lose $1500 annually to food waste.
- Use reusable K-cup pods for your at-home Keurig machine. They’re available at Target, Walmart, Amazon, etc. and it’s estimated that the average price of using reusable pods is $0.26 per cup, while the single-use Keurig pods were $0.67 per cup. That’s a saving of $0.41 per cup, which can add up considerably.
- Flip off the lights! Keep the lights on in the room you’re in, but keep the rest of the house dark. Saves energy, keeps the house cooler, and may be a soothing influence. If you have Alexa or an auto-timer, you can use that to switch your lights on and off.
- This is a good time to check to be sure you have adequate weather-stripping around your doors and windows. Lack of adequate weather-stripping can cost you $50 or more/year in lost energy.

Crop Walk – New Route, Same Great Cause!

Help raise money for local and international hunger by walking with us on Sunday, October 19th at 2 pm., starting at the CE building! We have one worship service that day at 12 p.m. (due to the Running festival earlier in the morning).

Right after worship, we will gather in the Christian Education building, lower level at 1:15 p.m for lunch and opening ceremonies, registration. The walk kicks off at 2 p.m. from the Christian Education building.

What is the CROP Walk?

It's a walk with a purpose; 25% of all funds will stay in Bethlehem feeding hungry people and 75% will go to international hunger relief through Church World Service.

This year's walk is a new route! It is about 2 miles through many of the newly inscribed World Heritage properties, taking you down Church St. into the Colonial Industrial Quarters and up Spring Street to the first stop - the site of Essentials Cafe, one of our recipients of the Crop Walk. Then we will walk over the Broad St. bridge and up to Center St. to get to Bethlehem Emergency Shelter at Christ UCC Church, another recipient of the walk's funds. Other recipients include New Bethany, Freezer Gatherers, and Lehigh Conference of Churches. All of these agencies work to supply food to hungry people in Bethlehem through food pantries, access to fresh produce, emergency meals/housing, etc. There will be a shorter route available as well. Bring your family and friends, and register yourself and raise money online here (look for Central Moravian Church team).
